

Ankita Sangwan

Associate

New York | Corporate Governance Litigation

asangwan@pomlaw.com

Ankita Sangwan focuses her practice on corporate governance matters. Ankita graduated in 2022 from the LL.M. program at Columbia Law School, where she was recognized as a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. Prior to attending Columbia Law School, Ankita worked for four years on the Commercial Litigation Team of a prominent law firm in Bombay, India, where she focused her practice on complex commercial and civil disputes. During that time, she assisted in arguments before various courts in India, including the Supreme Court.

In 2017, Ankita graduated with Honors from the B.A. LL.B. program at Jindal Global Law School, India. She was a member of the university's Moot Court Society, which finished as semi-finalists at the World Rounds of the International Investment Moot Court Competition, held in Frankfurt, Germany (2016). Ankita's moot court experience was recognized by her university; she was awarded the "Outstanding Contribution to Moot Court" prize upon graduation.

EDUCATION

- Columbia Law School
- Latin Legum Magister
- Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar
- Jindal Global Law School, India
- Bachelor of Arts in Latin Baccalaureus
- Moot Court Society member
- Semifinalist, World Rounds of the International Investment Moot Court Competition (2016)
- Outstanding Contribution to Moot Court prize recipient

ADMISSIONS

- New York

Notable Cases

· In Re Lordstown Motors Corp. Stockholders Litigation

Publications

- “Dexit Averted? Corporate (Re-) Domestication After SB 21,”
The Pomerantz Monitor, Vol. 22, Issue 5, November/December 2025
- “Q&A with Associate Ankita Sangwan,” The Pomerantz Monitor,
Vol. 22, Issue 1, January/February 2025
- “Navigating Section 220: Demand for Corporate Books and Records,” The Pomerantz Monitor, Vol. 20, Issue 4, July/August 2023

Accolades

- Finalist for New York Law Journal's “Newcomer of the Year” Award (2025)
- Super Lawyers® Rising Stars (2025)