

Eitan Lavie

Of Counsel

Tel Aviv | Securities Litigation

eitan@pomlaw.com

Israeli attorney Eitan Lavie is based in Pomerantz's Tel Aviv office. He has deep experience in securities litigation, with a global perspective gained through years of providing legal advice and representation to some of the largest asset managers and public pension funds in Israel and beyond.

Eitan has developed a multinational platform that provides access to information regarding securities fraud litigation and settlements, both within the United States and internationally, to affiliates across the globe, including the United States, Europe, Asia, and the Middle East.

Eitan earned his law degree, cum laude, from Bar-Ilan University in 1997.

EDUCATION

- Bar Ilan University – Israel
- · Juris Doctor, cum laude

ADMISSIONS

- Israel

Notable Cases