Guy Yedwab focuses his practice on securities litigation. Guy graduated from Rutgers Law School summa cum laude in 2023, while also receiving a Master's Degree in Public Affairs and Policy from the Rutgers University Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy. While in law school, he won awards with the National Appellate Advocacy Team and was an editor at the Journal of Law and Public Policy, in which he published a note on constitutional law. He was honored with the Marsha Wenk Fellowship at the A.C.L.U. of New Jersey and the Eagleton Institute's Henry J. Raimondo Legislative Fellowship.

Guy serves as a board member for the League of Independent Theater, a 501(c)(6) trade association for small-sized cultural institutions in New York City. As such, he consults with policymakers on fostering small businesses in the city.

Guy is admitted to practice in New York State's First Appellate Department.
