French lawyer Nicolas Tatin joined Pomerantz in April 2017 as Of Counsel. He heads the Firm's Paris office and serves as Director and Business Development Consultant for France, Benelux, Monaco and Switzerland. Nicolas advises institutional investors in the European Union on evaluating losses to their investment portfolios attributable to financial misconduct and how best to maximize their potential recoveries in U.S. and international securities litigation.

Prior to joining Pomerantz, Nicolas was a financial lawyer at ERAFP, France's €24 billion pension and retirement fund for civil servants, where he provided legal advice on the selection of management companies and the implementation of mandates entrusted to them by ERAFP.

Nicolas began his career at Natixis Asset Management before joining BNP Paribas Investment Partners, where he gained expertise in the legal structuring of investment funds and acquired a global and cross-functional approach to the asset management industry.
