

Samantha Daniels

Of Counsel

New York | Securities Litigation

sdaniels@pomlaw.com

Samantha Daniels joined Pomerantz as Of Counsel in 2024, bringing with her years of commercial litigation experience. Her practice involves representing aggrieved shareholders in securities litigation to recover losses across a number of industries, including pharma, technology, and entertainment. Since joining, Samantha has defeated several motions to dismiss, securing decisive legal victories for investors.

Prior to joining Pomerantz, Samantha was an associate at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, where she primarily worked in the firm's renowned appellate practice. She represented high-profile clients in matters ranging from securities litigation, consumer deception, and labor and employment, to constitutional crises.

Samantha's former matters include resolving first impression questions of employment status for gig workers for Uber and Postmates, securing victory for Apple against allegations of consumer fraud regarding FaceTime, and helping NML shareholders recover $2.1 billion in due Argentine bonds.
