New York | Securities Litigation

zdenver@pomlaw.com

Zachary Denver focuses his practice on securities litigation. Prior to joining Pomerantz, Zachary worked at prominent New York firms where he litigated a variety of complex commercial matters, specializing in financial markets, securities, and bankruptcy. Zachary graduated from New York University School of Law in 2013 and was a staff editor at the NYU Journal of Law and Liberty and a board member for the Suspension Representation Project. He earned a double bachelor's degree from the University of Massachusetts in Political Science and Communications. After undergrad, Zachary served as a Teach for America corps member in New York City and earned a master's degree in classroom teaching from PACE University.

Zachary also serves as a board member for the Legal Alliance of Pheonjong, a non-profit organization that provides legal services to Tibetan asylum seekers in New York City, and he has served as lead counsel on several applications including two successful trials in immigration court.

Zachary is admitted to practice in New York, the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and the Court of Appeals for the Second and Ninth Circuits.
